The Day of Caring Award is presented to an organization which acknowledges the importance of community service through employee participation in Day of Caring as a teambuilding activity and a part of their ongoing support.

The Keystone Award is presented to an individual(s) who has taken on a leadership role in facilitating a workplace campaign including attendance at meetings and events, campaign participation and service to the community.

The Spirit of the Chippewa Valley Award is the highest corporate recognition given by UWGCV. Each year, the award recognizes one company and its employees for exhibiting excellence in the area of corporate contributions, employee giving, employee education about health and human care needs in the community, and promoting volunteerism.

The Outstanding Emerging Leader Award recognizes an individual for their remarkable dedication to the Emerging Leader Society. This person demonstrates a mixture of leadership and volunteerism within the activities of Emerging Leaders. The recipient of this award helps strengthen our community today and tomorrow by engaging those in the Chippewa Valley between the ages of 21-45.
2022 Humanitarian Award

Ken Adler

The Humanitarian Award was established and awarded for the first time following the 2006 campaign. This award recognizes an individual(s) for their efforts to make the Chippewa Valley a better place to live by action, philanthropy, volunteerism, or involvement.

2022 Nonprofit Excellence Award

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northwestern Wisconsin

The Nonprofit Excellence Award recognizes a nonprofit organization for their efforts to make the Chippewa Valley a better place to live by providing services and opportunities for those in need.

2022 Senn Award

Jessica Oleson-Bue

The Senn Award was established in 1998 by Steve and Kaye Senn to honor professionals who have committed their careers to, and demonstrated leadership in, serving the Chippewa Valley community.

The board members and staff of United Way of the Greater Chippewa Valley apologize in advance for any unintentional omissions in this program, and wish to convey our sincerest gratitude and appreciation to everyone who has contributed to our community.

All information included in this program is based on data that was current as of 5.10.2022. If any content is incorrect, please send corrections to admin@uwgcv.org.
